INSTANTLY TRANSFORM THROUGH THE POWER OF SOUND

Welcome to Sonic Access, an amazing portal to greater success, richer relationships, balanced health, and spiritual growth using the power of meditation and the energy of sound.

Access powerful vibrational frequencies to align your body's energy system and create significant and lasting change in virtually every area of your life. Sonic Access employs the ancient practice of sound healing with today's leading-edge Paraliminal learning and Holosync audio technologies to help you achieve swift and transformative change.

The Sonic Access meditations—for Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth—blend the positive meditations of Paul Scheele and music composed by Paul Hoffman with specific sound frequencies to maximize the benefits to your body, mind, and emotions. Using the principles revealed in Diamond Feng Shui, you will connect your body and mind with the energy flowing in the quantum field. Then Spring Forest Qigong Master Chunyi Lin will help you integrate each meditation on your journey toward spiritual awareness through the Heart Sutra.

Manifest your goals. Live your dreams. Transform your life.

QUICK START

- Review this manual to learn how Sonic Access can be used to your ultimate advantage. You'll discover how to quickly clarify your goals and how to listen to the four Paraliminal Meditation CDs for optimal benefit in the areas of Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth.
- Then listen to the How to use Sonic Access CD. You will discover how ancient civilizations used the remarkable healing power of sound vibrations. You will see how you can tap into your body's complex energy field to align your personal intentions and manifest your goals.
- Determine a goal that relates to each of the four meditations. For example, with Sonic Access for Success, focus on the success you desire to create in your life. You can focus on major goals or minor ones. How do you define success? By financial wealth, job satisfaction, lifestyle, property and possessions, quality of life, or other accomplishments? To get the most from Sonic Access, ask yourself, “How would I choose to live if I knew I could not fail?” This is your opportunity to manifest your greatest reality.

ADDITIONAL TIPS

- Write your goals on index cards using the guidelines found later in this manual. You will place these cards in your Personal Best Directions which you will learn about on page 17.
- Listen first to the Sonic Access for Success Paraliminal Meditation, and let Paul Scheele guide you on an amazing therapeutic and transformational journey of sound. Each Paraliminal Meditation session has two tracks. The first is a guided meditation and the second a music track. You can gain full benefit of your Sonic Access program by listening to Track 1 only on each meditation CD. However, you may continue to listen to Track 2 to enhance your personal meditations. In fact, you may play Track 2 with its beautiful music and beneficial frequencies at any time in your environment, too.

- Once you have listened to Sonic Access for Success, you may choose any of the other meditations. Create a listening schedule according to your needs and goals. For example, you might listen to the Success meditation daily until you fulfill a particular goal before moving on to your next goal. Or you might alternate meditations according to your goals among the four areas of Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth. It's your choice.
- Preferably, face your Personal Best Direction for the meditation you've selected.
- Create a quiet time to focus inwardly. Choose an environment relatively free from distractions. Sit comfortably or recline.
- Listen with stereo headphones to gain the most benefit from the 3-D Paraliminal recordings with their embedded Holographic sound frequencies. You'll receive a unique, multilevel communication for each hemisphere of the brain—all without subliminal messages. You'll hear a variety of messages coming into each ear in a soothing, effective, and pleasurable way with beautiful music that was created for both aesthetic appeal and to support you energetically for specific positive results.

- If interrupted, simply open your eyes, deal with the matter, and then continue.
- If you fall asleep while listening, you'll still gain benefit, because the music and sound frequencies in the Sonic Access meditations help shift your brain waves to those of profoundly deep meditative states.
- Listen to only one meditation a day to allow full integration. If you would like to do additional meditations in a day, consider one of Chunyi Lin's Spring Forest Qigong meditations (www.LearningStrategies.com/Qigong) or one of Paul Scheele's Paraliminal sessions (www.LearningStrategies.com/Paraliminal).
- If you practice Spring Forest Qigong, before you begin a Sonic Access meditation say the password, I am in the universe, the universe is in my body, the universe and I combine together, and go into the emptiness at the beginning of your listening session. Finish with the Ending Exercise as you would at the end of a Sitting Meditation.
- Visit our online Discussion Forum to interact with other Sonic Access users who are transforming their lives through the power of sound! Go to www.LearningStrategies.com/Forum.

FACE THE FLOW OF ENERGY

If you have our Diamond Feng Shui personal learning course, you know that energy flows in and around you all day long. It ebbs and flows from different directions and carries different meanings. Feng Shui Master Marie Diamond says that energy from one direction supports your Success, energy from another direction supports your Health, another direction your Relationships, and another your Spiritual Growth.

These Personal Best Directions, as Marie calls them, vary from person to person. To find your Personal Best Directions, follow the instructions in the following section. First find Your Personal Energy Number. Then use this number to then find your Personal Best Directions for Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth. Memorize these directions, because you will use this information each time you meditate and when placing your Sonic Access Goal Cards.

YOUR PERSONAL ENERGY NUMBER

Your Personal Energy Number is based on your birth date and your gender. It shows the directions from which energy flows to support your goals. To find your Personal Energy Number, look up your birth date and gender in the chart on the following pages.

YOUR PERSONAL BEST DIRECTIONS

Use your Personal Energy Number and the following chart to identify your four Personal Best Directions linked to Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth.

DIRECTION NAME	PERSONAL ENERGY NUMBER
	1	2	3	4	MALE 5	FEMALE 5	6	7	8	9
SUCCESS	SE	NE	S	N	NE	SW	W	NW	SW	E
HEALTH	E	W	N	S	W	NW	NE	SW	NW	SE
RELATIONSHIPS	S	NW	SE	E	NW	W	SW	NE	W	N
GROWTH	N	SW	E	SE	SW	NE	NW	W	NE	S

EAST OR WEST GROUP	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

COMPASS READINGS FOR EACH DIRECTION

SW = 202.5° to 247.5° W = 247.5° to 292.5° NW = 292.5° to 337.5°
 N = 337.5° to 22.5° NE = 22.5° to 67.5° E = 67.5° to 112.5°
 SE = 112.5° to 157.5° S = 157.5° to 202.5°

GOAL CARD CREATION

Create four Goal Cards, each containing one main goal or intention for each Sonic Access meditation session as follows:

1. Make four separate lists of goals relating to Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth.
2. Pick a goal from each of the four lists. Write each goal on a separate index card.

Examples include:

Success: I am successful in my career as a profitable builder of fine homes and enjoy abundant wealth that exceeds my financial needs.

Health: I choose to eat healthful foods and exercise at least three times a week.

Relationships: I am in love. My partner and I have a supportive relationship based on fun, honor, and respect.

Spiritual Growth: I am connected to my higher power and take 10 to 30 minutes each day to practice my Spring Forest Qigong exercises.

3. Sign and date the cards.

GUIDELINES FOR GOAL SETTING

Use the following six guidelines to ensure your intentions, or goal statements, are well-formed.

1. State goals in the positive.

Goals must specify what you want, not what you don't want. For example, if you do not like your house and want to move, specify exactly the characteristics and location of the house you want using positive terms. Instead of saying, "I want to get out of this cramped house in a noisy neighborhood," state, "I live in a spacious four-bedroom home with a scenic view in a secluded neighborhood."

2. Focus on goals within your control.

Ultimately, you are the one to decide what you want. For example, the goal “I want my office team to be happy” is not within your control; you cannot control how someone else feels. “I do my part to create an office environment that supports my team’s work” constitutes a general effective goal statement.

3. Preserve what you value.

State your goal so that it maintains the things you value most in your life. If you have to give up too much to have a goal, it is unlikely you will seek it. For example, earning more money may take away from family time if it requires overtime or additional schooling. Make sure the trade-offs are worth it to you.

4. Craft measurable goals.

You must be able to know when you have achieved your goal. If your goal is to be happy, it is very difficult to know whether you have it or if it will last. To turn “I want to be happy” into a measurable goal, you must specify what happiness means to you. “I spend four hours of quality time with my family each week engaged in intriguing, learning activities” is a measurable goal; you have a way of knowing when you have achieved it.

5. Create worthwhile goals.

Craft a goal around what you greatly desire. Your goal must be something you value. For example, if you set a goal because your partner or doctor wants you to, you are setting yourself up for failure. Your goal must involve something you consider important and worthwhile.

6. Write goals in the present tense.

Notice how the goal examples in the previous section are phrased: “I am...” and “I choose...” Goals should always be written in the present tense as if they have already been manifested.

You only need to know what it is you choose to create. How it will be created is of no concern to you at this time. Focus on the “what,” not the “how.” How the realization of your intention comes about flows from a deeper understanding of the mechanics of the universe, from the deep reservoirs of human consciousness that the limited conscious mind cannot fathom. There are human transformational capabilities that far exceed human understanding at this time, yet we know the laws that govern them.

GOAL CARD PLACEMENT

To get the greatest benefit from your Goal Cards, place each of your four cards in your corresponding Personal Best Direction for Success, Health, Relationships, and Spiritual Growth. Place them in your bedroom and in any other area you spend more than five hours a day, including your office.

For example, if your health direction is Southeast, the energy for health flows to you from that direction. Write your health goal on an index card. Then place that Goal Card in the Southeast area of your bedroom or office.

To place your Goal Cards, use a compass and follow these steps:

1. Stand in the center of the room and look at your compass. The floating colored arrow points to magnetic North. From this center point, note your four Personal Best Directions in the room.

There are eight primary directions: North, Northeast, East, Southeast, South, Southwest, West, and Northwest. Since a compass measures 360 degrees, each direction encompasses a 45-degree area (see page 17).

2. Place your Goal Cards within their proper areas.
3. As you place a Goal Card, say the statements on your card out loud, and visualize yourself having achieved the goal.

USING THE GOAL CARDS DURING MEDITATION

Face toward the placed Goal Card for each meditation to ensure the best flow of energy in your environment comes to you. If lying down, the top of your head should be pointing toward the best direction. Doing so will ensure these cards send your intentions to the Universe and to your mind 24 hours a day.

If using a Goal Card or orienting toward the proper direction is not convenient at the time of your meditation, simply bring your intention into mind as if your Goal Card is located in its best direction and know that you are attracting the best energy to fulfill your goal.

While listening to the meditations through stereo headphones is best, consider placing a portable stereo within the area of the best direction for the goal you would like to focus on. Playing the music-only track from the meditation CD can increase the flow of energy for that direction. It can be a fun way to activate the energy to accelerate the realization of your goal.

WHY SONIC ACCESS WORKS

The central feature of the Sonic Access program is the “audio template,” an underlying set of sounds that delivers energy frequencies directly to the mind and body to produce benefits without need of the conscious mind’s awareness. Sonic Access acoustically employs the phenomenon in physics called “sympathetic resonance.” Just as a note of C tuning fork will begin to vibrate when another C tuning fork nearby is struck, the sound frequencies in these Paraliminal Meditations will bring your body and mind into alignment with your highest good.

These frequencies, in various rhythms and tones, stabilize the body and brain into an ideal learning state. Listening to this audio template has a spontaneous positive effect on your heart rhythm, breathing rate, and brain waves. The frequencies also activate the energies associated with each of the four areas you are focusing on to facilitate effortless change.

THE POWER OF PARALIMINALS

The four Sonic Access meditations incorporate the unique Paraliminal technology developed by Paul Scheele. Paraliminal, as derived from the Greek “para” (beyond) and “liminal” (threshold), means “beyond the threshold of conscious awareness.”

State-of-the-art digital recording produces a soothing 3-D sound that allows music and voices to project spatially in your head. Used with stereo headphones, the Paraliminal Meditation sends multilevel communications to each hemisphere of the brain. As you listen, you will hear a variety of messages coming into each ear in a soothing, effective, and pleasurable way, all to activate your whole mind.

HOLOSYNC AUDIO TECHNOLOGY

Holosync audio tones, which you might hear as a hum, have been embedded in the recording to increase your ability to benefit and learn from your Sonic Access program.

Centerpointe Research Institute's Holosync audio technology, when listened to with stereo headphones, creates the electrical brain wave patterns of many desirable states. These states include deep meditation; increased creativity, focus, and concentration; and accelerated learning ability. Using Holosync creates new neural pathways between the left and right brain hemispheres, balancing the brain, enhancing mental/emotional health, improving mental functioning and self-awareness, and healing unresolved emotional problems.

A much deeper and more powerful version of Holosync can be found in Centerpointe's ongoing program, The Holosync Solution. For more information about this program, how Holosync can accelerate mental, emotional, and spiritual growth, and to receive a free Holosync demo CD, visit www.Centerpointe.com.

THE HEART SUTRA

As each Sonic Access meditation nears its conclusion, Spring Forest Qigong Master Chunyi Lin chants Buddha's Heart Sutra in Chinese to help you integrate the benefits of the meditation into your body and mind. Regarded as the summation of Buddha's wisdom, the Heart Sutra perfectly expresses the insight attained by nonattachment, the "doctrine of emptiness." Chunyi Lin regularly chants the Heart Sutra in his personal meditation, because it is the most effective chant for understanding the universe and achieving spiritual enlightenment. The ancient formula of sounds provides a tremendous benefit that goes beyond your conscious mind's ability to perceive it.

THE POWER OF SOUND

by Simon Heather

In the 1960s, Hans Jenny, a Swiss scientist, spent over ten years conducting experiments to discover the effects of sound waves on materials placed on metal plates vibrated with sound. He found that low-frequency sounds produced simple geometric shapes in the materials. As the sound frequency was increased, these simple forms would break up and more complex patterns would appear. The sound 'OH' would produce a perfect circle.

Jenny came to the conclusion that sound creates form and that the entire human body had its own sound made up of all the sounds of its cells, tissues, and organs.

In 1974, Fabien Maman, working as a professional jazz musician, noticed that certain musical keys had an energizing effect on both the musicians and the audience.

Fabien worked with the French physicist Joel Sternheimer. Sternheimer had discovered that elementary particles vibrate at frequencies in accordance with musical laws. They found that body tissue, organs, and acupuncture meridians each have a musical note.

A few years later, Fabien met H el ene Grimal, a senior researcher at the National Center for Scientific Research in Paris. They devoted a year-and-a-half to study the effects of sound on normal and malignant cells. Using drums, gongs, flutes, guitar, bass, and a xylophone, they investigated the effects of sound on healthy blood cells, hemoglobin, and the ‘Hela’ cancer cell from the uterus.

They found that even at lower volumes of 30–40 decibels the sound always produced noticeable changes in the cells. As the sounds progressed up the musical scale there would be an “explosion” of the cancer cells at a certain frequency as the sound traveled outward from the center of the cell to its outer membrane. The experiment yielded the most dramatic results when the human voice was used.

Fabien said, “Near the end of the scale, usually around the seventh interval, the cancer cells exploded. It appears that the cancer cells were not able to support a progressive accumulation of frequencies. . . . The healthy cells appeared supple and able to freely receive, absorb and return the energy. In contrast, the cancer cells appeared inflexible and immutable in their structure.”

Musician Jim Oliver says that the body responds to sounds, even those that we cannot hear. He put selected sounds exclusively into a pair of headphones and put them on a client's ankles. They responded to the sound even though their ears could not hear the sound. Oliver went on to say that, "Once you vibrate a part of the body the blood cells carry this resonance to the whole body very quickly."

Japanese scientist, Masaru Emoto, wanted to find a way of scientifically evaluating water quality. He decided to freeze samples of water taken from different sources to compare their crystalline structure. When pure water crystallizes it forms a pure crystal; would contaminated water also form a pure crystal?

Water was placed in Petri dishes in a freezer for two hours, then placed under a microscope and photographed at a magnification of 200–500 times. Although the crystals that formed were all unique, the crystals from water of the same source were all similar in shape. Over a four-year period his team took 10,000 photographs.

Tap water from Japanese cities generally would not form complete crystals. Tap water from London formed no crystals at all. Spring water generally produced the most beautiful crystals, as did water from holy places such as Lourdes.

Masaru Emoto's next experiment was playing music to water. He placed distilled water in between two speakers and played one piece of music fully at normal volume. Then he froze the water.

Classical music produced beautiful crystals of slightly different colors. Healing music, a Tibetan mantra, and folk music also produced beautiful crystals. Heavy metal music produced a pattern that looked like a crystal that had exploded into a thousand pieces. Japanese pop music produced ugly square-shaped crystals rather than the normal hexagonal ones.

Since our body is made up of 70% water, Masaru Emoto's work demonstrates that we are constantly being influenced by the sounds around us and by the information stored in the water we consume.
