Meet and Greet Sir Ranulph Fiennes! SOLD OUT. Being the first man to cross the Antarctica from one side to the other, via the pole, and holding several other outstanding world records, this talk takes a deeper, personal look into the great explorer's expeditions and his knack for living life on the edge. Both light-hearted and strikingly poignant, "Living Dangerously" spans Sir Ranulph's childhood and school misdemeanors, his army life and early expeditions, right through the Transglobe Expedition to his current Global Reach Challenge - his goal to become the first person in the world to Sir Ranulph Twisleton-Wykeham-Fiennes, 3rd Baronet OBE (born 7 March 1944), commonly known as Ranulph "Ran" Fiennes (/ˈrʌnlf ˈfaɪnz/), is a British explorer and holder of several endurance records. He is also a writer, poet and co-creator of 'Sir Ranulph Fiennes' Great British Rum'. Fiennes served in the British Army for eight years, including a period on counter-insurgency service while attached to the Army of the Sultanate of Oman. He later undertook numerous expeditions and was the first person to Alexandra Palace Theatre - London Sir Ranulph Fiennes : Living Dangerously. Find tickets. Find tickets. Thu 19:30.
