Women's & Gender Studies and History. University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee eichner@uwm.edu. Education. Ph.D. Modern European History University of California, Los Angeles, August 1996. Examining the period from the early 1860s through that century's end, Carolyn J. Eichner investigates how radical women developed critiques of gender, class, and religious hierarchies in the immediate pre-Commune era, how these ideologies emerged as a plurality of feminist socialisms within the revolution, and how these varied politics subsequently affected fin-de-siècle gender and class relations. Carolyn J. Eichner is a historian and Associate Professor of Women's Studies at the University of South Florida.
