

Here I am

The Solemnity of the Annunciation was rather overlooked last week, so this is an opportunity to partially redress the situation.

In the Incarnation of the Son of God, we recognise the origins of the Church. Everything began from there.

Every historical realization of the Church and every one of her institutions must be shaped by that primordial wellspring. They must be shaped by Christ, the incarnate Word of God. It is he that we are constantly celebrating: Emmanuel, God-with-us, through whom the saving will of God the Father has been accomplished.

And yet – on the Solemnity of the Annunciation – the divine wellspring flows through a privileged channel: the Virgin Mary.

St Bernard speaks of this using the eloquent image of aquaeductus (cf. Sermo in Nativitate B.V. Mariae: PL 183, 437-448). In celebrating the Incarnation of the Son, therefore, we cannot fail to honour his Mother. The Angel's proclamation was addressed to her; she accepted it, and when she responded from the depths of her heart: "Here I am... let it be done to me according to your word" (Lk 1: 38), at that moment the eternal Word began to exist as a human being in time.

From generation to generation, the wonder evoked by this ineffable mystery never ceases. St Augustine imagines a dialogue between himself and the Angel of the Annunciation, in which he asks: "Tell me, O Angel, why did this happen in Mary?". The answer, says the Messenger, is contained in the very words of the greeting: "Hail, full of grace" (cf. Sermo 291: 6).

In fact, the Angel, "appearing to her", does not call her by her earthly name, Mary, but by her divine name, as she has always been seen and characterised by God: "Full of grace - gratia plena", and the grace is none other than the love of God; thus, in the end, we can translate this word: "beloved" of God (cf. Lk 1: 28). Origen observes that no such title had ever been given to a human being, and that it is unparalleled in all of Sacred Scripture (cf. In Lucam 6: 7).

It is a title expressed in passive form, but this "passivity" of Mary, who has always been and is for ever "loved" by the Lord, implies her free consent, her personal and original response: in being loved, in receiving the gift of God, Mary is fully active, because she accepts with personal generosity the wave of God's love poured out upon her. In this too, she is the perfect disciple of her Son, who realises the fullness of his freedom and thus exercises the freedom through obedience to the Father.

In the Second Reading of today's Mass, we hear the wonderful passage in which the author of the Letter to the Hebrews interprets Psalm 39 in the light of Christ's Incarnation: "When Christ came into the world, he said: ... 'Here I am, I have come to do your will, O God'" (Heb 10: 5-7). Before the mystery of these two "Here I am" statements, the "Here I am" of the Son and the "Here I am" of the Mother, each of which is reflected in the other, forming a single Amen to God's loving will, we are filled with wonder and thanksgiving, and we bow down in adoration.

Entrance Antiphon:	Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!
1st Reading:	Isaiah 50:4-7
Psalm R:	My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (Ps 22)
2nd Reading:	Philippians 2:6-11
Gospel R:	Glory and praise to you, O Christ. V Christ became obedient for us unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him: and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.
Gospel:	Mark 14:1-15:47
Communion Antiphon:	Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

Baptism Preparation: the next session is on 12 April; please come to the sacristy at the end of the 10.30am Mass. If you wish to have your child baptised at Holy Cross, you need to attend one of these sessions, usually held on the first Sunday of each month.

HOLY WEEK

SERVICE TIMES FOR HOLY WEEK AND THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM are all given on the sheets available by the doors. Please take as many as you need, and please do not ring the Priory asking about service times...

A Retreat will be given by Fr Simon Gaine OP. He will preach at the 12.30 and 7.15pm Masses, and give a talk after Tenebrae on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. There will be Adoration before Mass, and Confessions; and a Penitential Service after Mass on Wednesday evening.

PLEASE NOTE the extra opportunities for Confession, and please do consider coming to Tenebrae at 9am on the three days of the Triduum. The name Tenebrae is the Latin word for "darkness" or "shadows", and has for centuries been applied to the ancient monastic night and early morning services (Matins and Lauds) of the last three days of Holy Week. The service is marked by a chanted reading from the book of Lamentations, the singing of psalms and responsaries, and the gradual extinguishing of candles as the psalms and responsaries are sung. Each service ends with a short litany, the cantors finally lying prostrate before the altar. Books are available so that you can follow and participate in the service.

MONEY MATTERS: Last Weekend's collections – Offertory Collection £1938.37 (of which £1078.00 was Gift Aided and £860.37 was not) and in addition the parish receives approximately £240 per week in donations made by standing order, nearly all of which are Gift Aided; SVP £9.28; Friends of Holy Cross £7.00; Holy Souls £35.62; Grenada Church Restoration £ - .

200 Club. February's winners were: 20, J Lawrence £150; 96, B Brooker £100; and 199, E Curley £50. Congratulations!

Very many thanks for your continuing generosity.

News from the Parish Shop:

- ◆ There is a good supply of the CTS's Simple Prayer Book. This has the Order of Mass, numerous prayers and devotions, and a section on Catholic teaching. All this for £1.95.
- ◆ We still have some cards for Easter from 20p.
- ◆ We have a stock of "A Short History of the Dominicans in Leicester: Commemorating the 750th Anniversary of the Foundation of St Clement's Priory in 1247", written by Fr Isidore. Available at its 1996 price of £2.

The shop is open after the 12.30pm Masses during the week, on Saturdays from 11am until after the 12.30pm Mass, and after every Sunday Mass. The shop is in the room beyond the sacristy.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in excelsis!

Stations of the Cross in the first part of Holy Week: Wednesday after the 12.30pm Mass.

KING RICHARD III

- ◆ Our heartfelt thanks to absolutely everyone who contributed towards making last week so memorable. All the events went particularly well, and we were blessed with beautiful Spring weather all week. Deo gratias!

Lunchtime Organ Recitals at Leicester Cathedral. On Monday 30 March, Simon Headley will play at a meditation in words and music for the start of Holy Week. On Monday 4 May, Carl Bahoshy will give a recital in aid of the UK registered charity 'Iraqi Christians in Need'. Recitals are at 1pm.

Parish Pilgrimage to Lourdes: Please note that the dates have changed to 8-12 June. From Stansted, staying at the Agena Hotel. £425 per person sharing. Please contact Fr David.

The General Election 2015. Please pick up a copy of a letter on this subject addressed to Catholics in England and Wales by our Bishops.

The 2015 March for Life is taking place on Saturday 16th May, starting at St Chad's Cathedral, Birmingham, led by Archbishop Bernard Longley, from 12 noon onwards. We hope that many people from churches all around will join us on the march. The march is across Birmingham city centre and less than a mile long. We aim to arrange a coach from Leicester (aiming for fare of £8-£13 per person depending on numbers) and now we need you to tell us that you would like to come! Can you spare a few hours in prayerful, peaceful defence of unborn babies in danger of abortion? Call now to reserve your place on the coach. Families welcome! Contact: Stephen on 07850 441093 or steviearnell@hotmail.com or Francisca on 07943 711549 or francisca@sicamartinez.plus.com.
