

Baptism of Desire Poems

By Louise Erdrich

Harper Perennial. Paperback. Condition: New. 96 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.7in. x 0.4in. A second book of poetry by Louise Erdrich, author of the bestselling and award winning novels Love Medicine, The Beet Queen and Tracks. Baptism by blood, water, or desire is necessary for salvation in Roman Catholic tradition, and baptism of desire in the term used for the leap of trust by which a sincere believer can experience spiritual regeneration. Louise Erdrich's poems are acts of redemption. Everywhere evident is Erdrich's unique capacity for finding the perfect word, the fresh, yet absolutely right, metaphor that makes her work both profound and accessible. In her notes to the book, Erdrich comments that most of the poems in the collection were written between the hours of two and four o'clock in the morning, during insomnia brought on by pregnancy. A number of voices in the poems painfully draw breath as if for the first time. The perspective may alternate between that of mother ("The Fence," "Birth") and child ("The Return," "The Flood"). Such fluidity of identity can be both terrifying and exhilarating, can provoke experiences of doubt and illumination. In "Hydra," Erdrich draws on the ambivalent imagery of the serpent as seducer and as initia
