Penumbral Visions is a re-publication of a series of articles with a new conclusion. In these essays, Subrahmanyam seeks to establish what is "early modern" about four local polities in south India during the period of early European colonization. Subrahmanyam builds on his previous interests in political economy as they relate to the arrival of, particularly, the Portuguese to the subcontinent. Like his work on the Portuguese, his work in Penumbral Visions is marked by the use of a wide variety of local and colonial source materials that give his insights considerable authority and 5- Penumbral Visions: Making Polities in Early Modern South India, Delhi & Ann Arbor, Oxford University Press & University of Michigan Press, 2001. 6- Explorations in Connected History: From the Tagus to the Ganges, Delhi, Oxford University Press, 2004. 7- Explorations in Connected History: Mughals and Franks, Delhi, Oxford University Press, 2004.
